

Programme Mile End High School

Standards and Procedures

2023-2024

Contemporary World Issues, Secondary 5

Annelise Ogle

aogle@emsb.qc.ca

Term 1 (20%): 30 August – 27 October	Term 2 (30%): 31 October – 2 February	Term 3 (60%): 5 February – 21 June
Competencies Targeted Recursively		Evaluation Methods
Interprets a contemporary world problem (Competency 1): The student defines an issue, analyzes the problem, and considers it in its broader context.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Description of what is currently the case for given issues in the news</li><li>• Description of how key historical events have shaped this moment</li><li>• Explanation of the different players involved and the interests they defend or assert</li></ul>
Takes a position on contemporary world issues (Competency 2): The student considers different points of view on an issue, evaluates media treatment of that issue, considers opportunities for social action, and articulates a stance.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Exploration of what solutions have been or are being used to address given issues</li><li>• Evaluation of key players and their interests</li><li>• Development/Defense of stance on given issues</li></ul>
Term 1: By October 15, students will be issued a Progress Report with comments on their learning progress, behavior and on subject-specific competencies. At the end of Term 1, students will write an exam exploring a current issue around Migration assess the credibility of different news sources on this topic, and take a stance on how this issue ought to be tackled. This will count for 20% of their mark for Term 1. By November 20, students will be issued a Report Card.
Term 2: Students will write a midyear exam that explores a current issue around The Environment and Wealth Disparities , assess the credibility of different news sources on this topic, and take a stance on how this issue ought to be tackled. This will count for 20% of their mark for Term 2. By March 15, students will be issued a Report Card.
Term 3: At the end of Term 3, students will write a final exam that explores a current issue around Global Tensions and Conflict and create a news source on this topic which takes a stance on how this issue ought to be tackled. This will count for 20% of their overall mark . By June 28, students will be issued a Report Card with their final class marks . Final grades and transcripts will be available through the MEQ Portal at the beginning of July.		